Synopsis of Being Mortal: If you thought you were dying, what would matter most? Join us for a dialogue concerning an inescapable reality of life: death. Professionals and the community are invited to watch the FRONTLINE documentary Being Mortal, which explores what matters most to patients and families experiencing serious illness. This FREE event is open to all;

professionals and the community are welcome to attend!

FRONTLINE follows renowned New Yorker writer and Boston surgeon Atul Gawande as he explores the relationships doctors have with patients who are nearing the end of life. In conjunction with Gawande's new book, "Being Mortal," the film investigates the practice of caring for the dying, and shows how doctors - himself included - are often remarkably untrained, ill-suited and uncomfortable talking about chronic illness and death with their patients. After the screening, a forum will be open to participants about their experiences.
