

CHILDREN'S GRIEF AWARENESS DAY

Thursday, November 16, 2017 at 4:00pm

Mother Goose & Dr. Seuss: Telling the Stories of Grief, Part II

FREE program for anyone who works with children: school teachers, counselors, pastors, funeral directors and hospice personnel.

Held at: Cornerstone of Hope
5905 Brecksville Road
Independence, Ohio 44131

Learn different interventions to help a child or teen who is grieving.

- Last year was such a success that we are bringing new interventions and building on telling more stories of grief. You do not have to participated last year to join us this year.
- Leave with projects and support materials to use in your practice.
- The program offers one CEU for social workers, counselors and nurses, and one continuing education hour for funeral directors.

Program Schedule

3:30pm Registration, networking & mashed potato bar

4:00pm Program begins

5:00pm Adjourn

RSVP for the event

by calling 216.524.4673 or online at cornerstoneofhope.org by clicking the link on the home page. Please respond by November 13th to ensure we have enough supplies.

November is National Hospice Month

We say thank you to all of those who work at hospices and with the dying.

A CENTER FOR GRIEVING
CHILDREN, TEENS AND ADULTS

